Adobe Art Gallery presents the works of A.R.T., Inc. members in the upcoming exhibit Anything Goes, Almost featuring a variety of media including two and three-dimensional art. Meet and greet the artists at the artists' and awards reception, Saturday, January 27, 2017 from 1 to 3 pm.

Art judge Rinna Flohr of Expressions Gallery in Berkeley will select the exhibition awards.

A.R.T., Inc. was founded in 1984 as an association for artists to exchange ideas and exhibit their art. Fostering connections between local artists and art enthusiasts, A.R.T., Inc. provides free art demonstrations for people of all ages and displays the work of its members in six venues in Castro Valley. Members' art has been displayed at Bank of the West, Castro Valley Library, Baywood Court Senior Community (three galleries), Gladding Gallery at the Adobe Art Center, and Kenneth C. Aitken Senior Center.

A.R.T., Inc. partners with Hayward Area Recreation and Park District (H.A.R.D.) and provides support to H.A.R.D.'s Adobe Art Gallery through its membership fees, newsletter, website, art demonstrations, hands-on workshops and social events.

New to the Adobe Art Gallery, our inaugural Artist-in-Residence Program features artist Philip Denst. Denst will create snapshots of life in acrylic from his photographs. From a portrait of a friend on a ferry trip to his cat Sylvester on a tile floor, it is these ordinary, everyday moments that intrigue him.

You can see Philip Denst working at the Adobe Art Gallery during our A.R.T., Inc. Members' Exhibition: Anything Goes, Almost from February 1 – March 10, 2018. Don't miss the chance to see the work as it is being made. The work from Phil's residency will be on display in the A. B. Morris room of the gallery during our spring show, The View From Here, March 31–May 12, 2018.
